

Date: 14.04.15

'United in Education'

Inside this issue:

Welcome to the new OAU Leaders Times	1
Success at Near East University	1
The next OAU visiting session	2
Services and Benefits update: Academic Regalia	2
Get involved in the new Leaders	2
Contact Us	2

THE OXFORD ACADEMIC UNION

Leaders Times

Welcome

As an ever growing association there is a lot of news to report. New events are being added to the calendar, new competitions awarded, new members joining every week, website and social media launches.

The list is endless, as a fast paced organisation it's important to reflect on what's going on around us and take in the great work that we are doing everyday.

Members of the OAU in Regalia at the Oxford Summit of Leaders

Success at Near East University

Dr Pike, ISIS Innovation The University of Oxford, Dr Costigliola, Head of the committee for medicine The OAU and Ivan Savvov, Director of International Relations The Europe Business Assembly at the Near East University

From the 25-27th March the Oxford Academic Union (OAU) and the Europe Business Assembly (EBA) held a visiting session to Near East University.

The Event held in the University's Grand Library hall was a conference on 'University Cities and Heath Tourism'. The event was frequented by over eighty participants among them were Representatives of Local business and political offices, city managers and institutions of higher education representing many countries.

The event was an overwhelming success with 14 new members join the OAU.

View the opportunities.
Join the Oxford
Academic Union

The Oxford Academic

'United in Education'

Sarah Fleming
Executive Secretary
+44 (0) 1865 251 122
oua@eba.oxford.co.uk

Contact Us

UNINETTUNO: The next step

New technologies are introducing new educational methods and teaching opportunities everyday. There has been a significant rise in distance learning higher education facilities and institutions. One in particular is leading the charge, UNINETTUNO: Università Telematica Internazionale in Rome. The OAU is hosting a visiting session in October (Date TBC) to explore the concept of Universities of the Future: Distance Education.

UNINETTUNO

Contact us for more details.

Let's bridge the gap between science, education, and business together. Be united!

Member Benefits Update: OAU Design

OAU Academic Regalia available to all our members.

The OAU is launching our own range of Academic Regalia available to our members. Bespoke and with the made in oxford look the regalia adds an air of grace and community to gatherings of our members.

Furthermore we have extended this design to encompass sportswear. St. Hilda's College of the University of Oxford recently enlisted our design service for their rowing team. EBA sportswear is available to all our members.

Contact us for more detail on how you and your university can use our Design services.

EBA Director of International Relations Ivan Savvov out for his morning bicycle ride wearing EBA sportswear.

Contact Oau@eba.oxford.co.uk to submit an article to go into the leaders times

SUBMIT YOUR NEWS TO US